It's not much fun asking for money but Dying with Dignity NSW needs funds to continue to do its work, especially at a time when there is so much interest & debate. There are elections looming & four private members bills currently before Australian State parliaments with a chance of success. YOU can help us capitalise on these opportunities.

HELP donate

We are working for legislation in NSW that would provide compassionate and responsible end-of-life choices for suffering terminally or incurably ill people. We also carry out community education and provide information and resources to help with advance healthcare planning.

HELP CAN
LEAVE a BEQUEST

Bequests to an organisation can include items such as a percentage of your estate, shares, premises or a specific sum

We offer the following sample wording for supporters considering a bequest:

I give to Dying With Dignity NSW, a corporation, the sum of $..... free of all debts, duties and taxes, and declare the receipt of the Treasurer shall be sufficient discharge to my executors/trustees for this gift

We hope you'll let us know if you have named DWDnsw in your will as we would like the opportunity to thank you for your generosity

DWDnsw is unable to assist with the creation of a will and recommends that if you contact a solicitor for advice on this matter
